

Terms and Conditions

The personal information the user enters is absolutely confidential and is strictly kept between the user and UNACEM, as set forth by Law 29733 "Law on Personal Data Protection." In order to comply with the applicable legislation, the Law on Personal Data Protection, its regulations (Law 29733 and D.S. 003-2013-JUS) and the Safety Directive, we inform you the following aspects:

1. Any information provided by the user must be true, accurate and complete. The user is the sole responsible for the information provided through the website of UNACEM and for the consequences created by inaccuracy or misrepresentation thereof.
2. Personal data, such as names, telephone numbers and electronic mail are collected to comply with the purposes set out in this document and will not be extended to other purposes inconsistent with those specified.
3. All data requested to the user are necessary in order to provide and process consultations properly, being appropriate, relevant and not excessive in relation to the purpose they are requested for.
4. All data entered by the user must be true, accurate and to the extent possible, up to date, pertinent and appropriate, in order to truly reflect his/her current situation.
5. In accordance with Law 29733 and its regulations, personal data may be also disclosed to administrative entities, legal and/or police authorities, provided this is set forth by Law.
6. Personal data will be treated with absolute confidentiality. In its capacity as manager of the personal data bank, UNACEM is committed to keeping professional secrecy of the personal data and guarantees its obligation to protect it by taking all the necessary security measures.